Student Disclosure of Disability

The University has a responsibility to provide all students with equal rights to participate in education and to be treated with dignity in a supportive learning environment. The University assists students with disabilities and/or significant health conditions to complete all University learning activities within the context that the interests of all parties affected are balanced and risks minimised. All of the University's programs and courses are available to people living with disability and/or significant health conditions, unless a reasonable accommodation cannot be made that maintains the academic, clinical and professional requirements of the Program/Course detailed in the Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) or will cause unjustifiable hardship to the University.

KCA University asks students to disclose relevant information about circumstances that may impact on their capacity to undertake their studies and for the purpose of making reasonable adjustments. Students have the option to complete this non-compulsory Disclosure Statement.
